Leadership Sessions at Cannes Lions 2026

Hotel Barrière Le Majestic Cannes

Beet.TV returns to Cannes with its mix of impactful networking, compelling programming, and premium video production focused on the what's new and next for media investment.

Given all our programming is recorded, high-level conversations and takeaways will be watched and shared well beyond the festival.

The location of the Beet.TV activation will be in the Salon Dinard on the first floor of the Majestic Hotel with outdoor space in the entrance drive.

Just steps away from the Palais and the Le Croisette, the Beet.TV location will be highly visible from the Festival's primary locations.

Outdoor Space — Partner Branding Opportunities, Networking, Private Meetings, Video Interviews

Outdoor Space

The Beet.TV stage will showcase innovative companies in front of a live, curated audience.

Over the course of four days, Beet.TV will present a series of single-sponsored hour-long “Sessions” consisting of networking, video interviews, a fireside chat, and panel conversation moderated by Beet.TV editors.

- The audience will be guests of the partners and influential members of the Beet.TV community.
- The topics presented in the sessions will include CTV, Commerce and Retail Media, Data, Identity, Measurement, Search, Gaming, the impact of AI, and other emerging industry sectors, and will be produced for publication on Beet.TV and its network, including YouTube, LinkedIn, and the Bloomberg Terminals.
- Each session will be heavily promoted via email, and social media before, during and post Cannes.
